The new requirements for security licensing includes a ‘pre-licensing course’ which is structured to provide new entrants with the basic legal and operational knowledge to start working in manpower (Class 1) sectors of the security industry. All new entrants to the industry must attend and successfully achieve the requirements of the pre-licensing course to qualify for a Conditional Licence and to start work. This course is mandatory for all new entrants to the industry.

The Pre-licensing courses offered by Allies Security Services Pty Ltd are:

1A & 1C - 80 hours classroom attendance is required

NSW Security Licence Class 1 A – Static or Mobile Patrol Guard authorises the licensee to work as a patrol guard, to watch or protect property including the guarding of cash in transit.

NSW Security Licence Class 1C – Crowd Controller authorises the licensee to work as a crowd controller on licensed premises (formerly known as a bouncer).

The Training fee for the pre-licensing course for 1A & 1C, including the First Aid course is $550.00 please visit our website, www.alliessecurity.edu.au, or call us on (02) 9557 7466 to check if we have any special offers currently running). The course is GST exempt. If you live in the western suburbs, such as Parramatta or further out, we may offer you a further discount on the course fee to cover your extra travelling expenses.

Upon successful completion of the 2 courses, you will receive the nationally recognised statement of attainment in Certificate II in Security Operations CPP20211, and the First Aid Unit of Competency "Apply First Aid" (HLTFA301C).

PRE-REQUISITES:

To undertake this training, students must:

- Be 18 years old or over
- Sign a Statutory Declaration regarding their Criminal History
- Meet prescribed Language and Literacy requirements*
- Be a Permanent Resident or Australian Citizen (to apply for a security license)

If you are unable to successfully complete the English literacy requirements, Allies Security Services Pty Ltd will assist you with referrals to TAFE NSW or the Adult Migrant Education Service so that you may undertake additional training in English language and literacy. You may re-sit the literacy test with Allies Security Services Pty Ltd at any time and without any further cost to you.

Refunds are available if you change your mind before the course starts. If you commence the course and then change your mind you will not receive a refund unless there are circumstances beyond your control. You can find out more about refunds in the student handbook, which outlines your rights and responsibilities as a Trainee with our RTO.

Please note that a non refundable $45 fee applies which is included in the Security course fees. This fee will not apply if you come to our training centre to fill out the forms prior to the course commencement.
