SITHFAB002 Provide responsible service of alcohol

This course teaches you the skills and knowledge required to serve alcohol in a responsible manner. It is endorsed by Liquor and Gaming NSW, and the NSW Liquor Administration Board. You will learn about responsible service strategies; the legal obligations of bar staff; and, the strengths and effects of alcoholic beverages and standard drinks. You will also learn about smoking regulations and the benefits of responsible service strategies.

Entry Requirements:

There are no formal educational requirements for this course. The NSW Liquor and Gaming regulations require students to be 18 years of age or older in order to gain employment that involves the service of alcohol and gaming operations.

Upon successful completion of the training and assessment, you will be awarded a Statement of Attainment indicating competency in SITHFAB002 Provide responsible service of alcohol and an interim Certificate from Liquor and Gaming NSW.

The participant will need to take their interim certificate, appropriate identification and have their photograph taken at a Service NSW outlet. The "Photo Competency Card" will replace all paper based RSA and RCG certificates. The participants are able to work with the interim certificate for a period of 90 days, which is intended to be sufficient time for the Photo Competency Card to arrive. The Photo Competency card is valid for five years.

Course duration: This training program involves a combination of 6.5 hours (including breaks) of face-to-face training in a classroom environment at the Allies Security Services Training Centre, and 5 hours of self-study prior to the course based on multiple choice questions.

However, if you are not familiar with any of the course content or concepts, you may require more time to absorb all the required material. If you believe that you have any language literacy concerns, or are not familiar with liquor environment please contact us so we can send you the learning material prior to the course.

To be eligible to enrol in this training program, participants must be able to read and write English to a sufficient standard to work with the supplied texts. Students will be required to complete a Language, Literacy and Numeracy assessment prior to course commencement. Should you need support or assistance beyond our skills we will refer you to a suitable organisation to assist you further.
